Cabaret

Book by Joe Masteroff

Based on the play by John Van Druten and stories by Christopher Isherwood.

Lyrics by Fred Ebb

In a Berlin nightclub, as the 1920s draws to a close, a garish Master of Ceremonies welcomes the audience and assures them they will forget all their troubles at the Cabaret. With the Emcee's bawdy songs as wry commentary, Cabaret explores the dark, heady, and tumultuous life of Berlin's natives and expatriates as Germany slowly yields to the emerging Third Reich. Cliff, a young American writer newly arrived in Berlin, is immediately t aken with English singer Sally Bowles. Meanwhile, Fräulein Schneider, proprietor of Cliff and Sally's boarding house, tentatively begins a romance with Herr Schultz, a mild-mannered fruit seller who happens to be Jewish. Musical numbers include "Willkommen," "Cabaret," "Don't Tell Mama" and "Two Ladies."

The live orchestra for Cabaret at Theatre Woodstock is supported by the Brian & Rosemary George Fund and the William & Mary Mackesy Fund at Oxford Community Foundation.
