My Old Lady

Date and Time: Thursday, October 17 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 22 Reeve Street

When a down-on-his-luck New Yorker inherits a Parisian apartment from his estranged father, he uses the last of his savings to fly to France so he can collect on his win-fall.

Imagine his surprise when he meets the old lady who has lived there for years and has no intention of moving. The relationship that develops reveals truths from their past and perhaps a sliver of hope for his future.

Director: Sally Johnston

Producer: Janny Hughes

A Walk in Their Shoes - Mothers with a Heart for Ethiopia

Date and Time: Saturday, October 19 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: we have no office please contact by email

Mothers with a Heart for Ethiopia is holding their 2nd Annual A Walk in Their Shoes Saturday, October 19th in Woodstock at the Maranatha Christian Reformed Church (and outside weather permitting) from 2 - 4 pm (registration is 1 - 1:50 pm). A Walk in Their Shoes is a fun, inspiring, educational and meaningful event for the whole family. A silent auction, Ethiopian Merkato, Ethiopian Coffee Ceremony, Discover Ethiopia contest and refreshments make the event fun. An educational walk and inspiring closing ceremony will result in participants knowing they have been a part of something meaningful that changes lives in Ethiopia. Mothers with a Heart for Ethiopia is a local, not-for-profit, volunteer driven organization with no office, no staff and few expenses. Your fundraised money and donations go to women and children living in extreme poverty in Ethiopia. For more information, a pledge sheet, link to online fundraising, please visit www.motherswithaheartforethiopia.com.
